

Said In Cypress

That all former Air Force fly-boys ought to take in the Airpark's holiday tomorrow. The Link Trainer time is free and it would give those retired pilots a good opportunity to see if they have lost their touch at the controls.

Jim Bryant disclosed that his Trainer is equipped with the instrument that records all the facts concerning whether a turn has been made too sharply, or a dive too steep, and it even allows the instructor to foul up the student by turning off the gas supply.

The helicopter demonstration ought to be of interest to spectators, too, as well as the FREE refreshments.

That Billy Jim Noe compromised for a birthday party on last Saturday, which was a busy day, by riding on the Kiwanis Float in the Hometown Day parade.

That Pedagogue Rowe, seventh grade teacher, has the mumps! A substitute has relieved the sufferer of his duties.

That the Robinson family hasn't shown too much originality in the choice of names — partly from circumstances. Besides Father Everett, there is son Everett and grandson ditto, because a son-in-law is named everett.

That the Phil Bischoff's little dog has one of the cutest tricks we've seen yet. She says her prayers for treats of gum. And won't look up, "by gum," until "amen" is pronounced.

That speaking of dogs, little dog Heidi is back home again after spending the past several weeks with her relatives in L. A. Her "Uncle Willy," whom she had never seen, has been here for some time, and we guess she decided she'd better get home.

That Elmer Corby's barbering is in demand as far away as Los Angeles. We saw the request with our own eyes to visit Sunday and bring along his tools. His host believes there is no hair-cut like the one Elmer gives him.

That some people's horses will do anything to get their name in the paper. Another one of Sam Rosen's mares foaled a colt this week — and chose a pile of tin cans for the advent of her offspring, which not only provided noisy attention, but publicity as well.

That barring the procuring of a partner for the square dance the Woman's Community Club is sponsoring, come Saturday night next at the airpark, it ought to be fun just to sit in the hay and observe. Those clever women probably have more tricks up their sleeves than bales of hay in an airplane hangar, and we want to be there to see!

That the firemen may be plenty face when it comes to getting to a fire, but at such things as organizing dances they might be amiss. Only joking, fellows. The point is, although we were able to arrange with our printing foreman to rush their posters through the office in three days during the Hometown Day confusion, it still left only five days to publicize their dance. So, an extra reminder here that the volunteer firemen are having a dance Saturday night, May 21, in the fire hall, shouldn't hurt a thing. Reserve that evening for a good time at a worthy function.

Nellie Scally Dies Suddenly

The sudden passing of Mrs. Nellie B. Scally of 6172 Orange Ave., Cypress, was a shock to her many friends in West Orange County.

Mrs. Scally had viewed the Home Town parade from the apartment of her niece, Mrs. Maebelle Riechie, a teacher in the Lindbergh school. She and her husband had later spent the evening enjoying the television program at the home of their son, Ralph C. Scally.

Stricken with a heart ailment she died early Sunday morning in the Anaheim hospital where she had been taken as quickly as possible.

Besides her niece here, she is survived by her husband, Samuel Scally, the one son, a sister, Mrs. Julius Hollingsworth and a grandson, Ralph J. Scally, all of the Cypress district. Mrs. Scally had lived at Cypress for 44 years.

FERRIERA, HALLIDAY TIE LEADERS IN N.S.A.

Figures released by NSA headquarters show that following the first week ending May 14, Frank Ferriera, local short stop, has tied Hawaiian Gardens' Salazar for the batting leadership. Each slugger boasts a 1 for 1 and a 1.000 bat average.

Earl Halliday, whose win against Hawaiian Gardens ties him with Spinks, All American Market, and Evink, Coast Grain. His 9 strike-outs ties him with Evink, also.

Will Appear at Airpark Tomorrow

The shapely gal on the left is representing Jim Bryant's Cypress Airpark this week in the Orange County Aviation Week festivities. She is Mary Ann Jengtes, and standing beside her is endurance flyer Dick Riedel with the Fullerton entry, Mary Pat Lloyd.

The public is invited out to the Airpark tomorrow, which is Cypress' day in the week-long activities. All the outstanding aviation officials in the county, and many top-notch experts in the state and nation will inspect the Airpark, as well as the neighboring city officials. Mary Ann will be hostess at the Airpark all day.

The newly remodeled offices and rooms on the field will house displays explaining the work that will be done at the Airpark in the future. The helicopter and Link Trainer will be in action, too, with free rides for those interested in the Link Trainer's operation.

LOCAL MAN VIEWS DISASTER

Mike O'Halloran Helped Fight Hollywood Blaze In Wee Hours

When we say that "local color" was furnished the great Hollywood race track fire, we are not speaking of Michael Patrick O'Halloran's red hair. But Mike was there, and his first-hand account of the blaze which became a roaring inferno in the eerie hours surrounding midnight, transfers the feeling of excitement and awe felt by on-lookers as the grandstand was destroyed.

Although he usually returns home following his day's work at the track, Mike "just happened" to spend the fatal night in Inglewood. Sleeping with three other exercise boys in one of the barns, they were awakened by the fire warning over the loud speaker system. Stablemen were told to form fire-fighting crews and stand by. The horses were halted and the men prepared to lead them to safety in case the fire spread to the barn area.

It was with mixed feelings of tenseness and regret that the men watched the flames grow from a single spire arising from the elevator motor room, reach the roof, and within the matter of a few minutes completely envelope the grandstand, leaving a mass of wreckage. The atmosphere of Hollywood Park was endeared to all the staff, and according to Mike, the track itself had been worked over until it was in perfect condition. The horses, loving the feel of Hollywood race track to their feet, had fairly flown the course in recent workouts.

An interesting sidelight to the story was Mike's description of the frenzied attitude of Track Manager McKenzie. With one breath he bemoaned the burning of the costly grandstand, and with the next, he was already visualizing a bigger, better and grander spectacle ever before seen southern California.

Mike's love for horses is not in proportion to the number of his birthdays. His career as a rider was cut short following a painful accident a year or two ago. His favorite, and his current pet, is the boss' horse, "Kay Laddie."

PLAYERS DRAW WARNING

The NSA has learned of raids made upon league players to sneak over and play for teams of higher classification than those of the NSA. This warning is issued, "Any player caught playing for outside teams of higher classification than those of the NSA will be suspended from our league," signed, Bernie Floistad, Playground director, Norwalk County Park.

V.F.W. EVENT MAY 28 AT SCHOOLHOUSE; HAS FUN FOR ALL

Committee members of the Cypress Post No. 9847 of the VFW are asking residents to not forget the gala evening being planned for the organization and the public Saturday, May 28.

A free entertainment packed with fun and enjoyment is planned, featuring Faulkner, the magician, in a show of 101 surprises followed by a movie. This is an affair the whole family can attend and one which will delight the children as well as the adults.

Feature of the evening will be a grand drawing for the Westinghouse television set on display in the window of the former appliance store. Chairman of publicity for the event is Merle Bouse.

Recess Hearings On P.E.'s Plans

Appearing before the State Public Utilities Commission on Wednesday, May 11, the Pacific Electric railway finished its case for abandonment of its passenger service on four lines and substitution of buses for street cars on nine others. Consulting Engineer Arthur C. Jenkin, of San Francisco, presented PE arguments for the changes. Groups opposing the moves will now have time to prepare their arguments before another meeting.

Jenkins said plans call for elimination of 234 trolley cars and addition of 193 buses. Pacific Electric currently operates 94 buses and 330 rail cars. The new plan would provide for 293 buses and only 96 street cars. It is contemplated to abandon the Los Angeles to Santa Ana line completely for passenger cars, and no bus service is contemplated through several of the towns along the right of way, including Cypress. As far as could be determined, no one attended the meeting in Los Angeles locally.

ROBISONS OPEN DRY GOODS STORE

A new dry goods and notion store has opened in Cypress under the management of Mr. and S. W. Robison in the front rooms of their home at 5406 Lincoln avenue.

The store offers a wide selection of prints, crepes and other types of dry goods, besides a variety of gifts and notions.

Mr. and Mrs. Robison extend an invitation to all their former friends to come in and inspect the store. They formerly owned and operated the market located in the building next door to their home.

Devilettes Meet Downey Tuesday

The Downey girls' softball team will tangle with the Cypress Devilettes Tuesday night at 8 on the elementary school diamond.

It promises to be a real test for the Devilettes, since the Fullerton team which beat them last week has already met Downey and lost to them 4 to 2.

Although a complete list of sponsors has not been secured, the uniforms have been ordered and are expected to arrive within three weeks.

Father Of Mrs. Stan Doerr Dies Suddenly

Friends in the community were shocked to hear of death Monday to Elbert M. Whitford. A frequent visitor in Cypress at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stan Doerr, death came unexpectedly from a heart attack suffered in his home at 1001 Myrtle street in Santa Ana.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning at ten o'clock from the Smith and Tut-hill mortuary chapel with the Reverend Gerald Bash, pastor of the First Christian church officiating. Interment was in Fairhaven cemetery.

Survived by his wife, Cora E. Whitford, he also left to mourn his passing three daughters, Mrs. David Keen of Petersburg, Virginia, who arrived by plane Tuesday; Mrs. Ray Underwood of Santa Ana and Mrs. Doerr; three sons, Miner and David of Santa Ana, and Clifford, who had spent the past two weeks visiting and was preparing to return to his home in Boston, Massachusetts; four brothers, 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

He was a native of Nebraska, but has been a resident of Santa Ana for the past 37 years.

National VFW Auxiliary Prexy Speaks Locally

Knott's Berry Farm was the scene Wednesday noon of an elaborate luncheon honoring Mrs. Helen M. Murphy, national president of the ladies' auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Attended by members from many units in this district, those from Cypress who were present included Mmes. Jean Kreissler, Dorothy Smith, Frances Demaris, Ellen Jennings, Hazel Luty, Betty Knauss and Mrs. Olive Williams.

Mrs. Murphy entered the auxiliary in 1932 as the first president and a charter member of the Union, New Jersey unit. Her eligibility was based on the Mediterranean campaign service in World War I of her husband, Lt. Commr. (retired) Laurence J. Murphy. However, her position is unique among the heads of women's patriotic organizations since she is not only the wife of a retired naval officer, but the mother of two World War II naval veterans. Besides, she holds a service record in her own right, as a chief yeoman (F) in the U. S. Navy, the highest rate obtainable for women during World War I. Her training, experience, and natural interest lend strength to the organization's participation in national affairs. Mrs. Murphy is committed to the belief that "the best cure for Communism is Americanism in action," in support of which she is advocating a campaign of the auxiliary to gain 50,000 new members for the VFW in commemoration of its 50th anniversary and achievements as an organization which "honors the dead by helping the living."

The members in this area were extremely pleased with Wednesday's opportunity to greet this outstanding leader, as evidenced by the approximately 350 reservations for the luncheon meeting.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the auxiliary to Cypress VFW Post No. 9847 is Monday evening, June sixth. At last Monday evening's meeting, plans were discussed for raising additional funds for the treasury and reservations made for the luncheon previously described.

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT FOR CINA-CAR KIDDIES

Young patrons at the Cina-Car Theatre a mile east of Cypress in Lincoln will have no trouble recognizing the entrance on week-ends from now on.

Standing out in the driveway, will be a clown, dressed in full costume, waving prospective customers into the show with a flashlight.

"MISS V.F.W." CANDIDATE to be at the World's Championship rodeo at Huntington Beach Stadium Sunday, May 29, is Ona Hossack, representing the Santa Ana Post 1680 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Orange County and Long Beach VFW posts are sponsoring the huge benefit rodeo to raise funds for veterans relief and child welfare activities. Among the star contestants will be Gene Rambo, present holder of the coveted World's Champion All-Round Cowboy title. (Ken Wyman Photo.)

MISFORTUNES BEFALL YOUNGER SET HERE

One of the twin daughters of the D. C. Dillingham's, Penny, had the misfortune last Tuesday to break her arm in two places when she fell from the monkey bars on the local school grounds during a play period. Her sister, Pamela, is sympathetic.

"Susie" Beason's daddy was constructing a play slide in the yard of their home in Cypress Acres. Before it was completed, "Susie" broke her collar bone in a fall from the structure. She is not yet of school age.

Harold Appleby, a student in the local elementary school, has been suffering from a lingering illness, and at last report, it was supposed that he will be confined to bed for a period of months, with traction applied to his legs.

The mothers of all these youngsters are members of the Artesia chapter of the Rebekah Lodge.

Donnie Dixon, son of the D. D. Dixon's of the Cypress Cleaners, attends school at St. Boniface in Anaheim. He, too, has suffered from the epidemic of playground accidents, having broken an arm in a fall from school equipment.

Dance Saturday Sponsored By Local Firemen

The local volunteer fire department is sponsoring a dance in the Cypress fire hall Saturday night, May 21, beginning at nine o'clock. The public is invited to attend and participate in an evening planned for entertainment and enjoyment.

A dance band, which will give with the popular music, has been procured for the occasion, and refreshments will be available.

Contact any member of the local fire-fighting outfit for further information. But above all, plan to attend.

Dorothy Harryman Leads Class As Valedictorian

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Harryman, of 9702 south Holder road, are justly proud this year of daughter Dorothy. Chosen class valedictorian, she will represent the eighth grade in its graduation exercises on June eighth at Savanna school.

This achievement is merely proof that history repeats itself. Eleven years ago at Savanna, sister Margie gained the same honor, and represented her eighth grade graduating class as its valedictorian.

Mrs. J. Lukens Is Installed Cypress P-T.A. President

Cypress Voters Decide Three Issues Today

The voters will be given three ballots in today's election. One trustee will be elected for the board of trustees of the local elementary school district. Candidates are Jake Van Dyke and Frank Noe.

R. C. Cawthon, from this district is a candidate for trustee in Anaheim union high school.

SCHOOL ELECTION TODAY — FRIDAY

The polls will be open in the Cypress elementary school house today, May 20, from 12 noon until seven o'clock this evening. The issues to be decided include the selection of a local trustee, two high school trustees and the opportunity to either continue or reject the special additional tax which was voted three years ago. Mrs. Julia Bouse is inspector, Mrs. Dorothy Lukens and Mrs. Hazel M. Palmer, judges.

The question the voters will be asked to decide is concerning the maximum rate of tax for the district; should it be increased from 75c per each $1000 assessed valuation to $1 per each $100 assessed valuation to provide money for special building and furnishings, improvement of school grounds, and the purchase of school grounds. The tax will revert to the former 75c per $100 assessed valuation if the measure fails.

Current New "Face" As Regal Type Installed

The Cypress Enterprise is different this week! It may not be apparent to the average reader at once, but the type in which the reading matter is set is new, modern, more easily read than before.

The type, a standard style with many of the metropolitan dailies over the world, was designed for and produced by the Intertype Company in order to fill a need for a highly readable letter in the size necessary for newspaper columns.

The name of the type is "Regal" and it's improvement over the "face" in use on the publication for the past 18 years will be apparent if the reader will take a copy of last week's or any past issue and compare the two. The management and staff are proud of this improvement and modernization and it is another step toward bringing Cypress an up-to-date paper.

"SOCK HOP" FEATURES TEEN-CANTEEN AFFAIR

The low-teens and high-teens combined attendance last Saturday evening in a social time in the school auditorium. Over 100 teen-agers were present, and the evening's entertainment was highlighted with a "sock dance," which was the cause of much fun and merriment.

Chaperones for the evening included one of the mothers and Stan Doerr and H. P. McKinzie. The plan for this week-end is for a beach party Saturday evening, weather permitting.

Having been re-elected president of the Cypress elementary school P.T.A., Mrs. John Lukens was installed for her second term in an impressive ceremony conducted at the regular monthly meeting of the organization last Thursday evening. Mrs. Frank Leverich very ably presided over the installation service, which also seated the following officers:

Mrs. Louis Wlaschin, vice president; Mrs. Merle Bouse, secretary; Mrs. Ted Alleman, treasurer; Mrs. Joe Bailey, historian; auditor, Mrs. Arie Van Klaveren, and Mrs. Ivan Mahaffie, parliamentarian.

Each officer was given a lovely corsage as she accepted her responsibilities for the coming year.

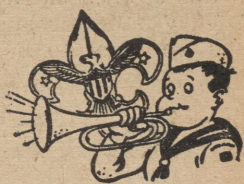

The school's part in the program was presented by the two kindergarten classes, under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Clarissa Higgins and Mrs. Evangeline Higginbotham. Songs and exercises done in the classrooms delighted the appreciative audience.

It was announced at the business session that June third has been selected at the date of the carnival this year. Proceeds from the affair will be used to carry out the four-point dental program adopted at the last meeting.

A sum of $50 was voted from the treasury to finance a week at Girl Scout camp for several scouts who would benefit from such an outing, but who are financially unable to make the trip by themselves.

A health picture, "What is TB?" was shown through the courtesy of the Orange county tuberculosis association by arrangement of the program chairman, Mrs. Frank Noe.

Kindergarten room mothers served coffee and doughnuts during the social hour which followed the evening's program.

Scouts Plan Exercises To Receive Charter

Scoutmaster Jack Kepner and sponsoring VFW post committee-men will be at the scout house on the school grounds Saturday morning. They will conduct a series of tests for scouts.

During last Monday evening's troop meeting, First Aid tests were successfully taken by Charles Chambers, Walter Beuck, Richard Kaulen, Clayton G. and Wade Martin.

Anthony Sedia, 5581 Saint Ann avenue, was welcomed as a committeeman, and will be active with the troop barring unexpected developments.

The local Boy Scout Troop No. 76 would appreciate the support of the public in its plans for a charter presentation and investment service at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, June 5, in the school auditorium. A movie will be shown in addition to the ceremonies. The VFW sponsors of the local scouts are especially anxious that this affair be a success.

NO VESTED INTEREST

Before the war, no self-respecting man would be caught dead in a business suit that didn't have a vest.

But army uniforms didn't include them, and wartime restrictions forbid their manufacture for civilian use. Men had to learn to use coat and trouser pockets for containers for combs, pens, nail files, lottery tickets, hat checks, matches and loose change.

Now, department stores report men have learned to live without vests and like it. Customers call them uncomfortable, inconvenient and useless. Though restrictions were lifted long ago, most manufacturers have quit making them. When a suit does come with a vest, many men don't even bother to take the unwanted garment home.

Let's hope, though, that loss of the vest isn't just the beginning. After another war, we'd probably lose our shirts.

With prices going down, some bathing suits may now be bought for a ridiculous figure.

KIDS CAN'T SPEL

Either the current batch of youngsters aren't very smart (madam, don't throw that flatiron, we aren't talking about YOUR child) or else the schools are not putting sufficient stress on spelling.

We refer to the recent disclosure in San Francisco that 37 per cent of the city's ninth grade pupils couldn't correctly spell even 10 out of 30 test words.

Educators say, however, that the present method of teaching spelling is not different from that used when the youngsters' parents attended school. They also point out that in schools where the average mental ability is comparatively high the students are often poorer in spelling than in schools where the average ability is lower. A bit confusing, isn't it? Probably the need is that more time be devoted to spelling in the classroom.

Anyway, we're sure glad we learned to spel good when we wer in school.

ANGLERS WARNED TO RELEASE SMALL
FISH WITH CARE

Those under-sized fish, if properly released, will live to provide angling thrills another day, reminds the California Division of Fish and Game.

Small fish, if not hooked severely in a vital spot, will generally survive if handled carefully when the hook is removed, reads an official appeal to the State's sportsmen.

If the fish doesn't fit in with your plans for a bag of 15 trout, five black bass, or limits of other game fish, follow this advice from the conservation agency:

1. Don't snap a fish off the hook;
2. Hold fish with dry hands to minimize pressure;
3. Use care in removing the hook, but return the fish to water as soon as possible;
4. Place the fish in relatively quiet water where he can rest;
5. Cut the leader with hook in place if the fish has swallowed it or become hooked in the gills.

John Crume went fishing on a live bait boat off Newport on Sunday and caught a nine pound bass, thereby winning the jackpot.

I RISE TO REMARK

(Last week I was discussing the procedures under which the labor management bill came to the floor of the House. The letter continues:)

Under the procedures, amendments could be offered to the Wood amendment by anyone, and on "rising" and becoming the Congress again, that amendment could be accepted or rejected on one vote, instead of by votes on individual amendments. The Administration said no amendments were to be accepted to the Lesinski bill. Labor, as well as management, wanted amendments. On Friday, the Administration suddenly reversed its position and brought in a "substitute" for the Wood amendment which included the injunction process and other details not desired by those who supported the Lesinski-administration bill. The Administration had now been on both sides of the argument, which I hope union members will note, and was about to get on a third side, if that is possible.

The Administration "quickie" (the Sims amendment) was rejected 133 to 211. The Wood amendment, with its changes, was adopted 210 to 196. Since there are only 171 Republicans, if all of us are well, and present, the bipartisan vote is evident. The House recessed. Some of the Members had to go to New York! Men and women, who had come to Washington to lobby, or to watch the bill's progress, had to pay another week-end's expenses. There was plenty of pressure.

On Tuesday, the Lesinski bill (technically) which now had the Wood amendment substituted for its original wording, was adopted by roll call 217 to 203. Mr. Marcantonio demanded an engrossed copy, a procedure which delays action one day. Incidentally, Mr. Marcantonio offered the only amendment which resembled the campaign promises of the Administration; it received only 37 votes.

We met Wednesday noon. Under the rule, the minority is given the motion to recommit. This protects a minority; another feature of the Republic. A committee member makes it, or the leadership indicates the member to make it. A California Republican, I am sorry to report, without consulting the Republican leadership, asked for recognition, and was recognized, to make the motion to recommit, indicating a previous understanding with the Democratic leadership, and thus meeting the letter of the rule, if not the spirit.

The vote was 212 to 209 to, re-commit. Close! Men on both sides, and of both parties, took chances of defeat in defense of the principle of this government, that the Representative, on the floor, knows what the situation is, and the wording of any bill, and therefore what is best to do about the vote. When pressure groups destroy that, they destroy the Republic.

As things stand, the T-H Act is still the law. There is no bill before the House. Mr. Wood has introduced his amendment, as adopted by the House, as a new bill. The Senate may bring out a bill. The chances of House committee action on any bill in the near future are remote. The chairman could hardly risk another attempt to force out a bill without hearings. His committee also has bills on federal aid to education; bills on minimum wages, and other highly controversial subjects. The administration still has a perfect score on its promises of last November: zero.

SUFFER FROM VARIETY OF DISEASES IN SCHOOLS

A report from the county office of Dr. E. L. Russell, health officer, shows the following communicable diseases for the period ending May 7 in local and surrounding schools in this area: Buena Park, 15 chickenpox, 3 German measles, 1-measles and 1 mumps; Cypress, 1 "Q" fever; and Los Alamitos, 4 chickenpox and 1 gonorrhea.

The "Q" fever case discovered in Cypress is the eighth in the county in recent months, and the patient is on the road to recovery, according to the information received. Dr. Russell has certified the potency of new drugs recently introduced for care of fever patients, it is reported, which he says has been "most effective" in treatment. The new drug is aureomycin.

Mrs. Vernon Hawes is recuperating from a recent appendectomy at the home of her parents, the Stan Doerr's.

CATHOLIC WOMEN ENTERTAINED

Mrs. George La Prairie was hostess at luncheon to 40 Catholic women of Buena Park and Cypress at her home, 8192 Commonwealth Avenue.

At the conclusion of business, bunco was played, resulting in prizes for Mrs. Bernard Burns, Mrs. Homer Vessels and Mrs. Le Roy Fry.

FRANK VESSEL GIVES PLANS FOR QUARTER HORSE RACE MEET

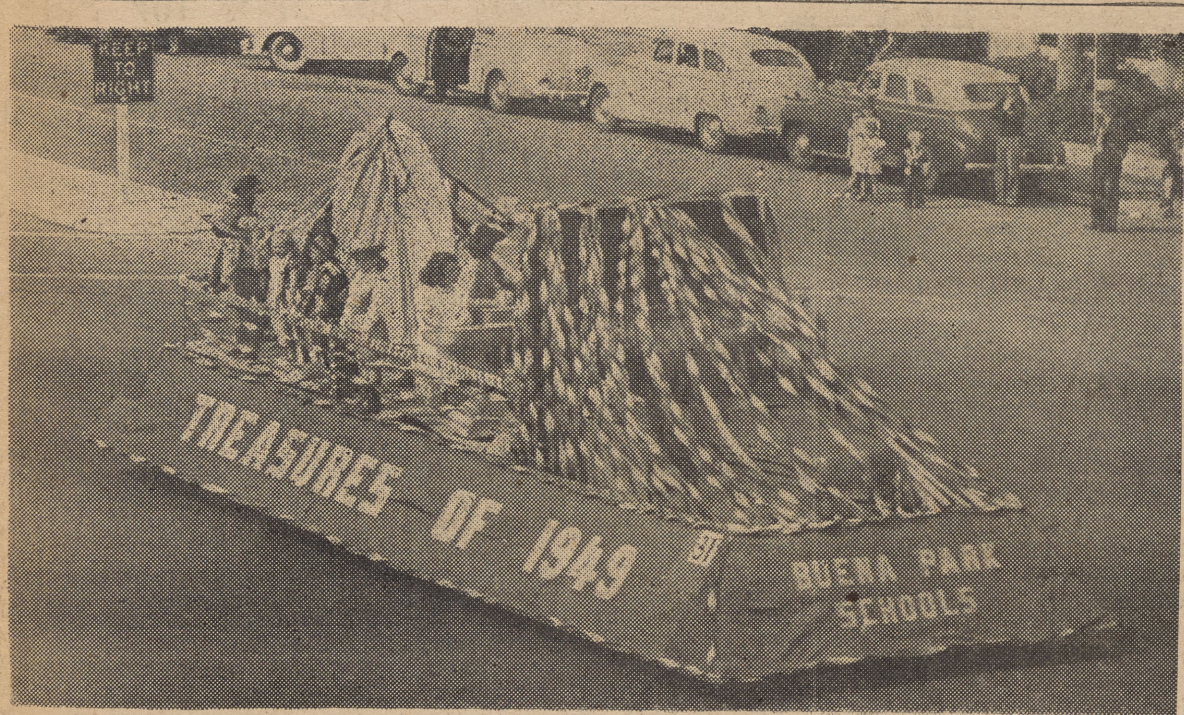

Frank Vessel, Los Alamitos rancher and president of the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse association, has invited local "short horse" and "cutting" fans to attend a two-day race and competition at Los Angeles County fair grounds. To be held May 21 and 22, the event will include four races, calf roping, cutting contests and other events.

Wild Bill Elliott, western movie star and rancher, is chairman of the cutting contest committee, and owner of Stormy Night, a registered quarter horse. The two-day meet will be patterned after those held annually in Texas and Oklahoma and other western states, before large crowds.

Cutting horses, Vessels explained, are the highly-trained animals cowboys ride when separating mixed herds of range cattle, the horse outmaneuvering the "critter" to be "cut" from the herd virtually without aid from the rider. Quarter horses, he said, are of cowpony size, trained to race for a quarter of a mile.

George R. Wheeler, 4562 Howard street, and children, Judy and George Alan, took a trip to San Francisco the first weekend in May. On their way they spent some time visiting friends in Santa Cruz. They also stopped at the Winchester Mystery House, near San Jose, and toured through the old home. They stayed with his aunt in Daly City for several days.

A "pot" is being made from party to party. Cokes and refreshments will be served. $200 will also be given away. Tickets are available from parishioners.

Cards received from Vera and Mel Wakefield indicate that they are enjoying the camp life of their new home in Rogue River, Oregon. They have had a little rain, but outside of that, the weather has been beautiful. They have erected a cabin home there as a temporary arrangement.

Mrs. Alice Otte has gone to visit her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Sumner, for several weeks.

Mrs. Anna Watte has gone to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Omer and Evelyn, for a few days. The Omer Watte's reside in Tulare, California. Anna was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Omer, and a cousin, Margaret Otte.

Under the Laurel school activities, the faculty is planning an open house and dedication of new buildings. A definite date has not been set, but the public will be notified.

Those who helped make the occasion and memorable one were Mesdames Louis De Leon, William Jay, E. Perdue, William Roarty, Jack Teague, Joseph Hammes, Joseph Mehren, Herbert Proctor, and Camille Patyn.

Father Albert Duggan, pastor of St. Isadore's Catholic church, celebrated his 17th anniversary of his ordination Sunday, May 15. It was a double celebration because it was also the Feast Date of the parish Saint Isadore.

LOS ALAMITOS AUX. HOSTESS AT MEETING

At the recent auxiliary meeting, several district guests were present. The 21st district president, Mrs. Grace Hickey, was on hand to give the unit a few pointers. District hospital chairmen, Nelle Carlson, showed the girls afghans that are used by the paralyzed veterans, and which she hopes that our unit can help make. She also made the plea for funds for more wheel chairs for these veterans. Marion Mathews, district vice-president, commented on the work our small unit has been able to accomplish, but that an increase in membership would help.

The final speaker of the evening was Mrs. Glem Sunderman, who is leader of the auxiliary sponsored Girl Scout group in Los Alamitos. She was proud to mention the activities that this group of seven girls has already done. They sold $86.00 worth of GS cookies; presenter Easter baskets to the aged at the Los Alamitos sanitarium, made mother's day gifts and conducted a nursery for the Faculty Tea at Laurel School, under the supervision of Mrs. Sunderman. At present they are engaged in work on their sewing badge, as they have completed their 2nd class badge. They also helped the Legion auxiliary to pick up rummage for their sale.

EMILE WATTE-VISITS KIN IN BELGIUM

Emile Watte, former resident of Los Alamitos but now attached to the Army in Frankfurt, Germany, wrote his family that he has just received a 10 day furlough. He is going to travel 250 miles between Germany and Belgium, to Brussels, and visit relatives there. He will stay with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Michel DePoort, and visit his aged grandfather. Emile telegraphed his mother a dozen red roses for Mother's Day, much to her delight.

Hope Speeds Aid

In Europe millions of youngsters have literally never seen a cake of soap. That's the reason CARE's great humanitarian agency is sponsoring a drive to supply soap for 30 million European kids. For every two Swan Soap wrappers sent by U.S.A. residents to CARE, Boston 1, Mass., one cake will go overseas. Bob Hope, who is backing the drive on his NBC show, gets on the assembly line to speed the deliveries.
